

6. Construction Works.—One hundred and four estimates relating to construction and other works were passed during the year. Ninety-three works were in progress and the total outlay amounted to Rs. 90,876.

The receipts under the Narasimharaja and Palace Building Funds were Rs. 2,228 and Rs. 273 and the expenditure Rs. 2,514 and Rs. 673, respectively.

7. General.—In connection with the slum clearance and rehousing schemes, 119 model houses at a cost varying from Rs. 580 to Rs. 1,050 each were constructed on the Karohatty Road and the opening ceremony was performed by His Highness the Yuvaraja of Mysore on 1st April 1938. Sixteen houses costing Rs. 1,050 each were sold to poor officials on easy monthly instalments. Thirty-one houses of the Dharmaprakash Rajaram Agrahar have been let out on a monthly rent of Rs. 4-8-0 each. The other houses are being let out or disposed of. Good progress was made on the scheme for the formation of a new circle of 170 ft. diameter at the junction of the Doddapetta and Irwin Roads.

The laying of underground sewers and giving house connection to flush latrines and sewage outlets in several parts of the city was continued during the year, the extension of the underground sewer being mostly in the Fort Mohalla and Edge Extension. Six hundred and fifty-one sewage connections were given during the year.

In addition to five blocks of houses already built last year under the Gokulam Scheme, four more were built during the year in the same locality. Two new roads were laid out during the year, one in Vanivilasapuram and the other in Chamundi Extension.

A circle at the junction of the Mysore-Manantody and Viceroy's Roads was completed. Filling up of Purniah's Nalla is being continued.

A new Grain Bazaar was laid out and much progress was made in the formation of a Bamboo Bazaar.

The layout of the Cheluvamba Park on both sides of the Princess Road at the approach to the Vanivilasapuram, taken up last year out of the gracious donation of Rs. 2,500 given by His Highness the Maharaja, was completed during the year.
